Saker News

The Saker Challenge, has now been renamed "Saker Challenge with Enduro Cup", to accommodate other race cars with drivers who enjoy multiple, or longer races. The series welcomes many types of sports and saloon cars, such as the Chevron GR8, Porsches, BMWs, Ferrari 355s, Ginetta G50s and Prosports. The new name has been introduced to encourage and welcome even more of these cars to compete at the 2012 events and ensure some great competition.

The promising Saker series is also to benefit this year by joining forces with the well-established Arrowpak Euro Saloon Car Championship at three meetings during the forthcoming season.

The Saker Challenge with Enduro Cup will then enjoy their own 45-minute pit-stop race thus giving them three competitive races at each meeting. Furthermore, all Euro Saloons competitors will also be eligible to enter the 45-minute Saker race, upon payment of an additional entry fee.

The three meeting union offers drivers in both Sakers and Euro Saloons the opportunity to maximize track time.
